The FAQs

WHAT IS AFW2?

The Air Force Wounded Warrior Program (AFW2) is a congressionally mandated and federally funded program that provides personalized care, services and advocacy to total force seriously wounded, ill and injured Airmen.

Our programs focus on specific personal and family needs through personalized support and advocacy.

Programs include:

- > Recovery Coordination & Resiliency
- > Family Liaison Officer Program (FLO)
- > Caregiver Support Program
- > Special Compensation for Assistance with Activities of Daily Living (SCAADL)
- > Emergency Family Member Travel Program (EFMT)
- > Adaptive Sports and Ambassador
- > Recovering Airman Mentorship (RAMP)
- > Empowerment in Transition
- > Air Reserve Component & Temporary Retired Care
- > Airman for Life (A4L)

HOW WE SUPPORT YOU

The Care Management Team (CMT) is an integral part of the AFW2 program. They provide individualized support, care management and coordination to all wounded warriors.

Key CMT members are Recovery Care Coordinators, Non Medical Care Managers, Clinical Case Managers, Commanders, First Sergeants and Caregivers.

The CMT uses the Continuum of Care to anticipate the needs of Airmen, caregivers and families.

List of services typically provided/coordinated:

- > Comprehensive Recovery Planning
- > Pay and personnel issues
- > Personalized transition assistance
- > Connecting with local, DoD and outside resources
- > Warm hand-off with the Veterans Affairs
- > Lodging and housing adaptation
- > Child and youth care services
- > Transportation needs

ELIGIBILITY & ENROLLMENT

Active Duty members who have been:

- > Identified as SI/VSI on a Casualty Morning Report
- > Airmen with highly complex medical conditions as provided by a Medical Authority
- > Medical diagnosis of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI), or Military Sexual Trauma (MST) under MEB consideration
- > Purple Heart recipients

Air Reserve Components (ARC):

- > Same as above to include validation that injury/illness was service connected and in-the-line-of duty while on active orders

Anyone may refer an Airman to the AFW2 Program.

Common avenues for referral are:

- > Casualty Morning Report (CMR)(VSI/SI)
- > Integrated Disability Evaluation System (IDES)
- > Commander, First Sergeant, Supervisor
- > Airman and Family Readiness Center (A&FRC)
- > Medical Continuation (MEDCON) Cell
- > Self Referral
