» American Red Cross Service to the Armed Forces and International Services

The American Red Cross supports service members, veterans and their families from the moment they enlist through their transition back to civilian life. Through our global 24/7 Hero Care Network, we provide Emergency Communication Messages to connect families in times of crisis. Critical Communication Services are also available for referrals and resources for financial aid during hardships. In VA's and Military Treatment Facilities, Red Cross volunteers assist with programs, offer support and comfort service members in difficult situations. Behavioral health and wellness programs promote mental well-being through workshops designed to help individuals navigate the challenges of military service. The Red Cross remains committed to assist service members and their families navigate the challenges of military service.

EDUCATION & TRAINING

June 2025

» Colorado Technical University

Colorado Technical University values members of the U.S. Armed Forces, and we understand that for many in the military, online colleges offer much-needed flexibility. Our convenient online degree programs give military members the freedom to attend classes when it's easier for them—a freedom that could mean the difference between having the time to pursue their academic goals or not—but that's not all we offer. As a military-centric online college, we have policies in place to help you balance your military and academic obligations.

» Warrior Bonfire Program

The Warrior Bonfire Program is designed to meet a critical need throughout the United States to provide much needed mental health and peer support to combat wounded Veterans through recreational therapy, and Post-traumatic healing. We are a 501c3 organization founded and led by Veterans to support and honor the immense number of Purple Heart recipients throughout the nation.

Our signature program, the Bonfire retreat, Bonfire Retreats are recreational therapy based, multi-day events that are reserved primarily for six Purple Heart Veterans. Bonfire retreats provide opportunities for wounded veterans, in small groups of six, to enjoy a favorite activity while partaking in the camaraderie and therapeutic value of spending time around the bonfire with fellow veterans while promoting Post-Traumatic Healing and the building of support communities, fostering healing and improving lives. Each retreat is concluded with a bonfire including a U.S. Flag retirement ceremony providing participants with an opportunity to honor fallen comrades.
