

INVISIBLE WOUNDS.

KNOW THE FACTS. TAKE ACTION. POSITIVE RESULTS.

An invisible wound is post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD); traumatic brain injury (TBI); or other cognitive, emotional, or behavioral conditions associated with trauma experienced by an individual.

COMMON CAUSES

An invisible wound can occur from a single traumatic event or a series of events, including combat and non-combat experiences. Your Airman can be affected.

- Blast exposure
- Blow to the head
- Death
- Physical and emotional abuse
- Combat exposure
- Serious accident
- Sudden or extended isolation
- Sexual assault

IMPACT

Invisible wounds are as real and severe as physical wounds. Untreated invisible wounds can have negative impacts on your Airman's life.

PERSONAL LIFE

- Relationship or marital problems
- Difficulty building trust
- Withdrawal or detachment from family and friends
- Decreased overall quality of life

PROFESSIONAL LIFE

- Compromising the safety of Airmen
- Failure to complete missions on time
- Incomplete tasks
- Poor work relationships

INVISIBLE WOUNDS. KNOW THE RESOURCES.

TALK TO SOMEONE

Trusted Advocates

Communicate with family members, Wingmen, and Command Leadership to obtain support through challenging times.

Chaplains

On-base chaplain services provide support for Total Force Airmen and their families including short- and long-term confidential counseling, religious and personal support, and spiritual resilience guidance. Duty chaplains are available 24/7 for crisis intervention, response, and counsel. Chaplain personnel can guide Airmen to additional care resources and are available to support all Airmen regardless of religious beliefs.

- Contact the chaplain team at the base chapel or connect with the duty chaplain through the base command post

Local #: _____

Military and Family Life Counseling (MFLC) Program

On-base resource located in the Airman & Family Readiness Center (A&FRC) offering solution-focused, short-term counseling to Total Force Airmen and their families for various life skills (e.g., anger management, deployment stress, and more).

- Contact the local A&FRC to use MFLC services

Local #: _____

Military OneSource

Comprehensive DoD resource that provides health and wellness resources and 24/7 confidential help, including connecting Total Force Airmen to specialized peer support groups and counseling services. Military OneSource offers counseling in-person and by telephone, secure chat, or secure video session.

- Call 800-342-9647
- Chat online at www.militaryonesource.mil

Vet Centers

Community-based facilities that provide a wide range of social and psychological services for service members, veterans, and families. Services include individual and group counseling for PTSD, suicide prevention, screening and referrals for TBI, and more. Vet Centers are available to Total Force Airmen upon meeting eligibility requirements. Vet Centers are separate from Veterans Affairs sites (health and benefit offices) and all counseling is confidential. The Vet Center Call Center is available 24/7 to connect Airmen with resources at their nearest Vet Center.

- Call the Vet Center Call Center 24/7 at 877-927-8387
- Visit www.vetcenter.va.gov to learn more about eligibility requirements and find your local Vet Center

94%

Many Airmen believe that seeking mental health treatment could hurt their career, but the opposite is usually true.

94% of Airmen who have received PTSD treatment continued to progress in their career.

SEEK MEDICAL SUPPORT

Military Treatment Facility (MTF)

On-base facilities offering short- and long-term medical treatment options for direct health and wellness care for Total Force Airmen. These programs are available to ARC Airmen when on active duty orders, approved Line of Duty, or in any emergency situation.

Behavioral Health Optimization Program (BHOP)

Integrates behavioral health personnel within primary care clinics and serves as an entry point for Airmen to traditional mental health appointments and other services. BHOP treatment uses solution-focused behavior change plans to help with depression, stress, anxiety, anger and sleep problems, and more. Appointments last 20-30 minutes and patients receive same-day intervention.

- To schedule a BHOP appointment, call the central appointments number at the nearest MTF

Local #: _____

Mental Health Clinic

Specializes in the assessment and treatment of invisible wounds. Mental health clinics offer a variety of support services to Airmen and their families. Services include individual counseling, group therapy, relaxation interventions, traumatic stress response, psychological testing, and medication management (where available). Treatment equips Airmen with the skills and tools needed to improve their overall well-being.

- Call or walk in to the local mental health clinic to schedule an appointment

Local #: _____

Director of Psychological Health (DPH)

The DPH is the recommended resource out of this set of resources for ARC Airmen. This resource is only available to ARC Airmen. The DPH provides individualized short-term, solution-focused counseling and refers or connects Airmen to other Air Force resources for short- and long-term medical or non-medical treatment.
