

WOUNDED WARRIOR
carebeyondduty

AIRMAN FOR LIFE

MONTHLY LIFELINE

1 Sep 2021

The recent ruling by the Supreme Court ended the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's temporary ban on evictions. It could lead to the eviction of millions of people who are behind on their rent.

VA is standing by to assess each Veteran's situation and identify the best options to help them secure stable housing, pay their rent or mortgage, or avoid eviction or foreclosure.

The importance of financial literacy: According to a recent survey by the National Foundation for Credit Counseling (NFCC), veterans are almost twice as likely to have debt carried over from month to month (58%) than civilians (just 34%). Nearly the same percentage of veterans (55%) believe they are ill-prepared for a financial emergency.

As a result of the FY21 ESAP and internally conducted research, the eligibility for wounded warriors to complete a CCAF degree post-service has changed slightly.

Military retirees and disabled veterans could see their monthly checks jump by hundreds of dollars each month in 2022, the largest increase since 1983

If you are a wartime Veteran who meets certain income, net worth, age or disability requirements, or you are a surviving spouse, then you may be eligible for VA's pension benefits.

Preparing for the passing of a loved one, or even yourself, can be a difficult and confusing time. VA can help you and your survivors prepare for the future. Here's how VA's burial and memorial benefits can honor your legacy.

Retirees to Pay more for Tricare enrollment and Pharmacy co pays rise for all in 2022